COURSE GRADE INFORMATION:

UConn courses taken through UConn Early College Experience reflect the University grading scheme. UConn final grades are issued on an A – F scale. Numeric grades are not accepted. Numeric grades must be translated to Alpha format using the conversion policy provided by the discipline-specific UConn Faculty Coordinator. Faculty Coordinators should be contacted directly with questions regarding calculating or converting a course grade. The grade that a student earns will appear on their official UConn transcript, listed on the non-degree portion.

I (Incomplete) – A student has not completed all of the assessments, but work completed is of passing quality and a make-up schedule has been agreed upon with the Instructor and UConn ECE Program Office. The student must complete all outstanding work by the agreed upon deadline. Once the student submits the outstanding work or completes the final assessment, the instructor must contact the UConn ECE Program Office to submit the final grade. If the student does not submit outstanding work by the agreed upon deadline and has not been granted an exception, the instructor will calculate the student’s grade based on work completed for the course. The final letter grade earned will replace temporary grades on the transcript.
W (Withdrawal) – A student is no longer physically sitting in the course, nor getting UConn credit

WAU (Withdrawal Audit) – A student is sitting in the course but no longer wants to receive UConn credit

UConn ECE is intended to be a beneficial way to begin a student’s college career. Should a student want to drop a course before the end of the enrollment period in late-September, the student must log in to the Compass Enrollment Center and drop the course. The course and course fees will be removed from the student’s UConn record. A student who wants to withdraw from a course after the fall enrollment period has the opportunity to complete a Withdrawal Form (WAU/W). The course will appear on an official UConn transcript with a WAU or W as a final grade. A student does not earn credit for a withdrawn course, nor will the course impact a student’s grade point average (GPA). A student has until December 12 for Fall courses, and May 1 for Spring and Full-year courses to complete and submit the Withdrawal Form to the UConn ECE Program Office. A student cannot withdraw from a course after the posted deadlines. A student who completes a Withdrawal Form is still financially responsible for all program fees associated with the course from which they have withdrawn.

Mid-way through a course, students should be advised of withdrawal deadlines so an educated decision can be made regarding completion of the course for a final letter grade.
If a student does not complete a Withdrawal Form by the posted deadline, the Instructor will calculate the student’s grade according to the grading scheme applied to all students in the course. This may result in a failing grade on an official UConn transcript.

Final Exam

Most UConn courses require a final examination or writing project. The AP exam is not to be used as a UConn final examination under any circumstances. Students registered for a UConn ECE course are required to sit for their UConn final exam, regardless of their current course grade or high school policies. Students who choose not to take their UConn final exam will receive a zero as their exam score grade, which will have a severe impact on their overall course grade.

High School and UConn Grade Differences

It is possible for the high school grade and UConn grade to differ. UConn ECE grades must follow the standards of the specific UConn department providing the credit. For example, the UConn grade may reflect how the University department weighs the mid-term and final exams as a percentage of a student’s course grade, whereas the high school grading system may reflect different criteria for assessment. It is to everyone’s advantage for such differences to be transparent.
If circumstances warrant two different grades for a student, the high school grade should appear on the high school transcript and the UConn grade should be entered into the University’s Student Administration System. The UConn grade will appear on a student’s official UConn transcript, listed on the non-degree portion. For credit transfer purposes, all UConn ECE courses on a high school transcript must include a UConn designation.

Sequential Course Grading Policy

There are numerous courses in the UConn ECE course catalog that are considered sequential courses (i.e. the Fall semester course is a prerequisite for the Spring semester course). These courses appear in Chemistry, Mathematics, Italian, Music, Sustainable Plant and Soil Sciences, German, and Physics.

All final grades for sequential courses will be checked by the UConn ECE Program Office at the conclusion of each term. Students unable to pass the first course of the sequence with a grade of C or higher will be dropped by the UConn ECE Program Office from the second course of the sequence and refunded any paid course fees for the second course. For example, if a student receives a C- in Physics 1201Q, they are no longer eligible to take Physics 1202Q, since Physics 1201Q is a prerequisite for Physics 1202Q.

If a student has received a C- or below in the first course of a sequence but wishes to continue to the second course, the student must receive instructor consent and complete a Sequential Course Continuation Form. Students who receive an F are not eligible to complete this form. Sequential Course Continuation Forms must be submitted to the UConn ECE Program Office by February 8, or before the start of the second course in the sequence. A student approved to continue to the second course in a sequence will remain enrolled in the second course and all course fees must be paid. If the second course in a sequence is offered in a different academic year than the first course, the student will be approved to enroll during the next registration cycle. This replicates the University experience for non-degree students who need to consult with the instructor before registration of a course.

Repeating a Course

Any student who is registered for courses and who satisfies the requirements shall be allowed credit only once. The exception is CAMS3102 which may be repeated under different topics.

A student may repeat a course previously taken one time without seeking permission in order to earn a higher grade. When a student repeats a course, credit shall be allowed only once. Furthermore, in the computation of the grade point average, the registered credit and grade points for the most recent taking of the course shall be included in the GPA calculation. The registered credit and grade for the prior taking of the course shall remain on the transcript, but shall be removed from the GPA calculation. The student should note that repeating a course that was previously passed can have negative consequences. For example, if a student fails a class previously passed, the student would lose credit for the first, passed, attempt and not earn credit for the second, failed, attempt. Students considering repeating previously passed courses should consult the UConn ECE Assistant Director.

A student must have permission from the UConn ECE Assistant Director to repeat a course that is listed as a prerequisite or corequisite for any course that the student has passed. For example, a student who received a “D” in CHEM 1127Q and subsequently passed CHEM 1128Q may not retake CHEM 1127Q without permission.
